

CLDS has won a national award

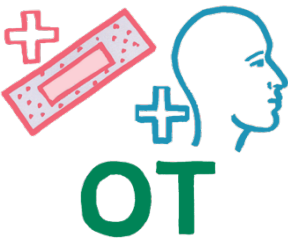

CLDS stands for Camden Learning Disabilities Service

CLDS will receive the Royal College of Psychiatrists Psychiatric Team of the Year 2020 award at a ceremony on 19 November

The award is for the team's work supporting people with learning disabilities and their families

CLDS is made up of lots of different people including nurses, OTs and psychiatrists

The team is very happy to have won the award

CLDS works hard to provide the best possible care for people with learning disabilities and their families

They are always looking at how to make care better for people with learning disabilities and their families
