Dear [REDACTED]

Re: Information Request – Freedom of Information Act 2000

Following your request for information we received on 4 December 2014. The Trust has looked into your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, but it is with regret that we are unable to provide in detail the information you have requested.

You requested:

“Please give me copies of all information the trust holds in connection with me under the Freedom of Information Act and, if applicable, Data Protection.

This should include details of any inquiries made to try to establish links between me and Josh Demetris

It should also include any emails involving staff where I am mentioned, particularly in correspondence involving your press or media staff.”

Refusal Notice

I must advise you that the Trust is withholding your request for information under section 40(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 which states:

“Any information to which a request for information relates is exempt information if it constitutes personal data of which the applicant is the data subject.”

Your request constitutes a subject access request, and accordingly the Trust will consider your subject access request application under section 7 of the Data Protection Act 1998. The Trust will be in contact with you shortly in due course.

I do hope you are satisfied with the way in which your response was handled, if not you may request an internal review at the above email address within 28 days of this letter. When contacting the Trust please use the above reference that is unique to your request.

If you remain unsatisfied with the outcome of the internal review, you may seek further recourse by lodging an appeal with the Information Commissioner' Office at Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF and on the Information Centre's website.
