Dear [REDACTED]

Re: Information Request – Freedom of Information Act 2000

Following your request for information we received on the 18 February 2015, we are providing you with access to the recorded information held by Camden and Islington NHS Foundation Trust in answer to your enquiry.

You requested the following information:

“I would like to submit a Freedom of Information request to the organisation’s finance and procurement department relating to contact details of people from within the organisation that is responsible for efficiency and savings.

Please find the attached file which details and list the type of contact details I require for within finance and procurement. Please can you send me their full name, actual job title, direct contact number and direct email address.

I am aware that not all organisations will have these exact job titles so please send me the closest equivalent.”

I can confirm that the name of the Director of Finance, is David Wragg. He can be contacted on 0203 317 3500 and by email at chief.executive@candi.nhs.uk.

Refusal Notice

I must advise you that the Trust is withholding your request for information for the name, job title, contact number and direct email address of the Head of Procurement and any member of staff below the level of Associate Divisional Director under section 40(2) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 because it is personal information as defined in the Data Protection Act 1998, as it relates to a third party who is a junior employee within the Trust. The disclosure would constitute a breach of at least one of the Data Protection Principles defined in the Data Protection Act 1998 and it would be unfair to this individual and beyond their reasonable expectation to release this information into the public domain.

Section 40(2) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 is an absolute exemption which means that the Trust is not obliged to consider whether or not it is in the public interest to release this information.

I do hope you are satisfied with the way in which your response was handled, if not you may request an internal review at the above email address within 28 days of this letter. When contacting the Trust please use the above reference that is unique to your request.

If you remain unsatisfied with the outcome of the internal review, you may seek further recourse by lodging an appeal with the Information Commissioner' Office at Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF and on the Information Centre's website. www.ico.gov.uk/

Yours sincerely

Interim Information Governance Officer
